LIVE STOCK MEETING IN CONVENTION.

Third Annual Session Opened at Fort Worth, Tex., With Large Attendance.

ORGANIZATION FLOURISHING.

President and Secretary Submitted Very Flattering Reports—Railways Sharply Criticized—Five Minute Speeches.

Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 15.—The third annual convention of the National Live Stock Association of the United States began here today, with a good attendance of delegates. After several addresses of welcome, the annual address of the president was delivered by J. W. Springer, Mr. Springer's speech was, in part, as follows:

"I am very glad to see you here today, and to see the live stock industry of the United States so well represented. The live stock industry of the United States is to be found harnessed to the chariot of progress."

"It is numbers or quality that command the world's gold dollars today? I answer it is quality. And now permit me to say a few words about the live stock industry."

"First—That no State can realize a heavy immigration, that is not liberal with the live stock interests."

"Second—That no railway management will prosper long which turns a deaf ear to the complaints of stockmen."

"Third—That no live stock market will continue to grow which imposes a terminal charge on every car of live stock for the privilege of unloading at their yards."

"Fourth—That no stockman will prosper who does not read and liberally advertise in stock journals, papers and magazines."

"Fifth—That the stockman who keeps the greatest reward will be he who places quality above quantity in all of his dealings."

"I regret to be compelled to report that the railways terminating at Missouri River points have been very ungenerous with the live stock interest in Texas. Nevertheless, a generally accepted promise, made by railway officials, the feeling in transit-privilege which we have enjoyed for over a quarter of a century, was abandoned without cause."

"The members of the National Live Stock Association are to-day stronger financially than the Standard Oil syndicate. We have nearly 50,000 members, and we are growing. In our horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, owned by our own members, we have nothing of those who indirectly represent."

"Shall we take this railroad bill by the horns and fight it, or shall we be tossed like a ball from hand to hand? We will take it by the horns and fight it. We will take it by the horns and fight it. We will take it by the horns and fight it."

"I am for peace if it can be obtained on any reasonable basis; but for war if we can obtain no redress by diplomatic methods."

"This great live stock organization has done for the terminal charges at stock yards in a few years. It is a great public policy and must, therefore, be abrogated."

"The importance of a thorough and complete live stock census, who has adopted the recommendations of the National Live Stock Association and has with greater accuracy the extent of value and numbers of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs in the United States."

"The weather bulletin is another feature we have had incorporated as a part of the duties of the live stock industry. Every stockman should have a weather bulletin. Every stockman should have a weather bulletin. Every stockman should have a weather bulletin."

"The general condition of horses, sheep and hogs never was better than at present, and the demand for meat is at the highest point in the history of the industry. The greatest foreign demand we have ever enjoyed will keep prices firm for some time."

"It may be set down with absolute certainty that the American horse never held a higher position in the world than at the dawn of the Twentieth Century. In all ages history speaks of him, and the future will glorify him. The horse is the king of the animal kingdom. His place shall never be taken by any other animal."

"The horse is the king of the animal kingdom. His place shall never be taken by any other animal. The horse is the king of the animal kingdom. His place shall never be taken by any other animal."

"The American hog numbers into the millions and the demand grows apace. In the live stock industry, the hog is the king of the animal kingdom. His place shall never be taken by any other animal."

"The hog is the king of the animal kingdom. His place shall never be taken by any other animal. The hog is the king of the animal kingdom. His place shall never be taken by any other animal."

"The hog is the king of the animal kingdom. His place shall never be taken by any other animal. The hog is the king of the animal kingdom. His place shall never be taken by any other animal."

"My, How It Sells!"

Said a prominent St. Louis druggist, speaking of Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets, to a representative of the Paris Medicine Co. "Why," said he, "I fill up that large box you see over there every morning, and at night it is invariably empty, showing conclusively what my customers think of the remedy. It is no wonder," he continued, "that they sell so easily and rapidly, as I have never yet heard of anyone taking Laxative Bromo-Quinine without satisfactory results. The fact is, that after my customers once try them they always call for them again when they contract a fresh cold, and we all agree that this is unquestionably the best evidence of the real merit of any remedy."

For water supply on the various ranges over the several portions of the country. At the conclusion of the president's address, the secretary, Mr. J. W.
